Are you that reliable, authentic personality with an entrepreneurial motivation who will strengthen our salesteam in its ambitious growth targets? Then respond quickly.

The position

We, from Budenheim QolorTech in Vaassen, are looking for a technical Sales Manager to existing and new customers in the European market. You will also be responsible for new projects in the area of specialty Masterbatches. You do this by immersing yourself in our products and the questions of the customer. In this role you spar with your sales team, I&AD and Marketing colleagues about the future, strategic themes and innovations as part of the Cluster Polymers, which comprises both additive and masterbatch business. Of course, you will also work closely with colleagues from production, planning, purchasing and logistics.

The job is in Vaassen with Netherlands and Germany as preferred location for candidates, and you report to the Head of Sales EMEA.

You bring:

- Bachelor's Degree in plastics engineering, polymer technology or equivalent
- 5 years of experience in technical sales of polymer & specialty additives in Plastics Industry
- Demonstrated position of responsibility in solving commercial and technical problems at customers' end
- Excellent command of the Dutch and English language in word and writing, command of the German language is an advantage

- Experience in technical project management or commercial economics is a plus
- Added advantage if knowledge in the 4-R approach for proper plastic use, and specific experience in the circularity of industrial thermoplastic for high quality recycling

At Budenheim QolorTech we uphold the core values of cooperation, quality awareness, taking responsibility and result awareness.

For this position it is important that you are self-organized and can work independently, radiate self-confidence, respond actively to opportunities, communicate clearly, know how to convince and leave a positive impression. All these skills are combined with a strong commercial approach, entrepreneurship and the clear aim to close the deal.

What do you get from us?

An informal and collegial working environment, personal influence and personal responsibility, competitive salary based on your knowledge and experience, a company car, 25 vacation days per year, a 13th month, a non-contributory pension and the option of following internal and external training courses to further develop yourself.
